CALLS
38	The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times. Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call. The company may accept from any member, the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, even if no part of that amount has been called up.	Directors may make calls
39	Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.	Notice of calls
40	A call shall be deemed to have been made at time when the resolution authorising such call was passed at a meeting of the Board.	Calls to date from resolution

41	A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board, but no Member shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.	Directors may extend time
42	If any Member fails to pay any call due from him on the day appointed for payment thereof, or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, he shall be liable to pay interest on the same from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board; but nothing in this Article shall render it obligatory for the Board to demand or recover any interest from any such member.	Call to carry interest
43	On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Member or his representatives for the recovery of any money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member in respect of whose shares the money is sought to be recovered appears entered on the Register of Members as the holder at or subsequent to the date at which the money sought to be recovered is alleged to have become due, on the shares in respect of which such money is sought to be recovered, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and the notice of such call was duly given to the Member or his representatives sued in pursuance of these Articles; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made, nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of matters aforesaid shall be conclusive of the debt.	Proof on trial of suit for money due on Share
44	Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which all from time to time be due from any Member to the Company in respect of his shares, either by way of principal or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money, shall preclude the Company from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such shares as hereinafter provided.	Partial payment not to preclude forfeiture
45	The Board may, if thinks fit, agree to and to receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the amounts of his shares beyond the sums actually called up; and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof, from time to time and at any time thereafter as exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon and due in respect of the shares on account of which such advances are made, the Board may pay or allow interest at such rate as the Member paying the sum in advance and the Board agree upon.	Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest

	The Board may agree to repay at any time any amount so advanced or may at any time repay the same upon giving to the member three months notice in writing.
46	The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid up shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of the sale thereof for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 24 hereof is to have full effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.	Company's lien on shares
47	For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators or his committee or other legal representatives as the case may be and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of the sum payable as aforesaid for fourteen days after the date of such notice.	As to enforcing lien by sale
48	(i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. (ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.	Application of proceeds of sales
49	(i) To give effect to any sale under Article 50, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. (ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer. (iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.	Validity of Sales in Exercise of Lien and after Forfeiture
50	Where any shares under the powers in the behalf herein contained are sold by the Board and the	Board of Directors may issue

	certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered upto the Company by the former holder of such shares, the Board may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered up.	new Certificates
FORFEITURE OF SHARES
51	If any Member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment remains unpaid, give notice to him requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.	If money payable on share not paid, notice to be given to Member
52	The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state, that, in the event of the non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or installment is payable, will be liable to be forfeited.	Terms of Notice
53	If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid shall not be complied with, every or any share in respect of which such notice has been given, may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or installment, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited, by a resolution of the Board to that effect.	In default of payment, shares to be forfeited
54	When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members.	Notice of forfeiture to a Member
55	Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed off, either to the original holder thereof or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.	Forfeited shares to be property of Company and may be sold etc.
56	(i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the	Member still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture and interest

	shares. (ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
57	The forfeiture of a share shall involve extinction, at the time of the forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company, in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.	Effect of Forfeiture
58	Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein before given- (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; (ii) The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of; (iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and (iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.	Validity of sale under Articles 47 and 55
59	Upon any sale, re-allotment or other disposal under the provisions of the preceding Articles, the certificate or certificates issued in respect of the relative shares sold shall stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect, and the directors shall be entitled to issue a new certificate or certificates in respect of the said shares to the persons entitled.	Directors may issue new certificates
60	At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.	Power to annul forfeiture
61	The provisions of these Company's regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes	Forfeiture to apply in case of non-payment payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES
62	The Company shall keep a "Register of Transfers".	Register of transfers
63	Every such instrument of transfer shall be executed both by transferor and the transferee and attested and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee shall have been entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.	To be executed by the Transferor and the Transferee
64	On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine.  Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.	Transfer books when closed
65	The Directors may decline register any transfer of shares not fully paid up or on which the Company has a lien. They may also decline to register a transfer of shares to a transferee of whom they do not approve. In all cases in which the Directors refuse to register a transfer of shares they shall, within two months after the date on which transfer was lodged with the company, send to the party lodging the shares for transfer notice of such refusal.	Director may refuse to register transfer
66	Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of the Articles of Association, where any instrument of transfer of such shares has been delivered to the Company for registration and the transfer of shares has not been registered by the Company, the provisions of Section 126 of the Act shall apply in regard to right to dividend in relation to such shares; also any offer of right shares and any issue of fully paid up bonus shares in relation to such shares shall be kept in abeyance in accordance with the provisions of the said section.	Rights to dividend, right shares and bonus shares to be held in abeyance pending registration of transfer of shares
